Police Storefront Opens in Rancho Peñasquitos

Please join Council President Scott Peters, Councilman Brian Maienschein, Police Chief William Lansdowne and residents of Rancho Peñasquitos for the opening of the Diamond Gateway Police Storefront.

Wednesday, July 16
1:00 p.m.

Los Peñasquitos Elementary School end parking lot
14215 Cuca Street
San Diego, CA 92129

The storefront will serve the communities of Rancho Peñasquitos, Carmel Mountain and Sabre Springs, and will be staffed by a Community Relations Officer, Police Service Officer and members of the Retired Senior Volunteer Patrol team. This is the only San Diego Police storefront on school property, thanks to a cooperative agreement with the Poway Unified School District.

Residents can visit the Diamond Gateway storefront Mondays through Fridays from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. to speak with a police representative about crime prevention, police policies or any other matter.

Other San Diego Police storefronts serving inland San Diego are located at the Rancho Bernardo Library and the Mira Mesa Senior Center.
